

ECHO AAC

Alternative and Augmentative Communication

ECHOAAC@waisman.wisc.edu

Do you work with individuals who use AAC? Do you want to expand your knowledge about AAC?

Learn more about AAC from Waisman Center experts!

AAC SUPPORT AND COMMUNITY

Connect with individuals who use AAC, families, speech-language pathologists, teachers, occupational therapists, social workers, and other team members

Learn best practices for AAC users, and get your questions answered by University of Wisconsin-Madison Waisman Center AAC experts

MOVING KNOWLEDGE, NOT PATIENTS

Through technology-enabled collaborative learning, ECHO creates access to high-quality specialty care in local communities

Learn more about ECHO AAC:

<https://www.waisman.wisc.edu/echo/echo-aac/#upcoming-session-dates>

PROJECT ECHO

Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes

UPCOMING SESSIONS:

- AAC Funding
October 12, 3:30-5PM
- An Augmented Communicator's Experience
November 9, 3:30-5PM
- Culturally Responsive Practice in AAC
December 14, 3:30-5PM

WAISMAN CENTER
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON
University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities